

POSTER PRESENTATION GUIDELINES

Dear participants, congratulations on being accepted as poster presenters! The poster session maximizes your opportunity to interact with the other conference participants.

Please read the following guidelines and information before creating your poster presentation. Give considerable thought to the design and presentation of your poster to make sure that it stands out as an attractive and informative presentation. You ought to be certain that the 'reader' of the poster comes away with a clear understanding of your research.

Display Area

- For poster sessions, each author is provided a 100cm x 75cm free space where he should hang on his work. Stationery goods also will be provided to hang your poster.

Format

- Poster presentations are hard-copy (paper/poster) format only.
- SPO participants have to make their posters in A1 format!!!
- Please leave a blank corner (as it is shown on the Fig.1) of your poster for your poster number (minimum 3,5cm x 6,5cm).

- Posters must fit within the designated space listed above.

- The most successful and attractive posters are graphically-produced posters that highlight and summarize the main points, with the poster presenter filling in the details.
- The least effective poster format is a photocopy of the manuscript.

Your Poster Presentation Should Include:

- The paper title, all authors, laboratory and institute/university at the top of the poster. Poster presenter's name is ought to be underlined.
- A brief introduction, goals, experimental detail, conclusions, and references (make sure this information is presented in a logical and clear sequence).
- Explanations for graphs, pictures, and tables.

Font Sizes (suggested preferences)

- Font: Times New Roman
- Title: 36 point type
- List of authors: 25 point type
- Double-spaced text: 15 point type
- The entire poster layout should be readable from six to ten feet away
- Be careful in your use of colors, some people are red-green color blind and some colors do not stand out in contrast to others.

Set-up

- Poster presenters must set up their posters between 09:00 and 14:00 on the day of their poster session.
- A poster author or coauthor is required to stand by the poster during the scheduled poster session to answer questions from attendees.
- It is your responsibility to remove your poster at the end of the session
- Posters not removed will be considered unwanted and will be discarded.
